

P4 Jönköping

Start

P4 programmes A-Z

Tableau

Track listings

Archive

I

Member of Parliament Mats Green, Jönköping (Moderate Party) Photo: Axel Adolfsson

VIEW ALL PHOTOS \(2\)

NUCLEAR POWER

The government wants to mine uranium in Sweden – new proposal in the pipeline

1:38 min  My page  Share

Published today at 05.00

- According to information to P4 Jönköping, the government will within a few weeks present a new proposal to allow uranium mining in Sweden again.

- Uranium mining was banned by the previous government, but the Tidö parties agree that mining should be allowed again.
- There are several reasons to resume mining, according to Mats Green, a Moderate Party member of parliament from Jönköping.

Dan Segerson

dan.segersson@sverigesradio.se

Related

Strong criticism of uranium mining: "Of course it's insane"

1:08 min · today at 13.05

